

Lansburgh & Bro. Lansburgh & Bro.

The Foremost Arbiters of Fashions from all over the world will be represented here tomorrow by their very clever conceptions of Dame Fashion's newest fabrics. For your fall and winter attire you can choose from a greater stock and a broader variety than ever, thus more than ever firmly establishing our undisputed leadership in Dress Goods and Silks. About prices? They are surprisingly modest, as the following will testify:

One of the Largest and Most Sensational Underpriced Silk Sales Ever Known to Retailing.

The most important auction sale of the year occurred last week, by order of Schwarzenbach, Huber & Co., in the auction rooms of Townsend & Montant, 87 and 89 Leonard Street, New York. The sale was pre-emptory. Our buyer was present and found opportunity to obtain almost every kind of silk now in vogue at remarkably low prices. Here are details that give exact information:

Handsome Line of Colored Peau de Soie.
21 in. wide. Value $1.25. All the leading shades for street and evening wear. Custer, Cardinal, Navy, French Blue, Reseda, Pink, Sky Blue, Lavender, Tan, Cream, White, and Black. Special 75c

Colored Crepe de Chines.
22 in. wide in the following shades, value 75c: Light Blue, Pink, Lavender, Grey, Navy, Custer, White, and Cream. Special 49c

Before you select your Black Peau de Soie examine our stock—we can show the largest in the city, with correct prices. Our leaders at 75c, $1, and $1.25 will startle you for value.

Black Satin Duchess.
Special—we invite comparison.
26 in. All Silk 59c
27 in. All Silk 72c
Value, $1.00

More than 100 Colorings
In Taffeta, 19 in. wide, including Cream, White, and Black. We will stand by the wear of this cloth. 2c value. 60c

Taffeta Raglan Coats.
54 in. wide Black Taffeta, fully guaranteed. Bright and very brilliant. Value, $2.50. Special $2.19

A Decisive Underpriced Sale of Staple Black Goods.

The mere mention that lowered prices will prevail tomorrow on our famous black fabrics will suffice to create the interest warranted by such an announcement. There's not a second quality—all first-class goods. Look at these prices and think of the enormous saving:

Black Mohair Sicilian
For over outside or under-skirts. Very nice for fall wear; a great dust shaker and very durable. Special one day only. 50c

Black All-wool Granite,
Fine, smooth-weave, neat design, soft finish. Always stylish and in demand. This is a 30c number. Special one day only. 48c

Black Mohair Brilliantine.
Something that every lady nearly wishes for school wear; for misses and general outing there is nothing better. One price only. 50c quality. Special one day. 58c

Black All-mohair & Wool
New and tasty design. One of the latest things out. Feible Japonet, medium rough effect; extra value. 46 inches. Special 65c yard.

Black All-wool Whip
And Royal Cord, in three new designs, silk finish. These will repel the dust. Medium weights. Are excellent for street wear; skirt or suit. 42 inches. Special value. 75c

Black All-wool Cheviot
Good, heavy weight for an unlined skirt—just the correct thing—not too heavy—new weave. This is a good 15c value. One piece. $1.00

Black Fine All-wool
Storm Serge. This is an undergarment bargain. None like it to be found. 15c value. 56 inches. Nice, fine black. One piece only. $1.00

Black Silk and Wool
Sublime, a sister fabric to the above, guaranteed to wear, perfect black—splendid for waists or entire dresses. Regular $2.50 value. To go at $1.00 yard.

The New Fall and Winter Colored Dress Goods

A Big Batch of Special Values.

28c Yard for
Fine All-wool Serge, in Navy Blue only, and All-wool Homespuns, in 2 Greys, Brown, and Blue; all 48 values.

69c Yard for
50-inch Camel Hair, all wool in Navy, Red, Navy, Old Blue, Brown, and Mode. Only one piece each; fully worth $1.25.

98c Yard for
54-inch extra quality Sponges of Visions, in Red, Mode, Brown, Green, Navy, &c.; worth $1.19.

49c Yard for
Extra fine Mixed Suitings, Melrose cloth and granites, in all the new autumn colors. These are 90c values.

75c Yard for
The New Hop Sack Granite Suiting, in ten new fall shades; all wool; worth $1.00.

98c Yard for
The New Redonda Crepe and Whipcord Suiting; all colors, including Cream; worth $1.25.

A Veiling Sacrifice

without a precedent occurs here tomorrow, when we place on sale 1,500 pieces Up-to-date Face Veilings, in all desirable colorings—we have divided them into two lots. Read them carefully and you'll see that you're buying them at just one-quarter of their original value.

LOT 1—A complete assortment of the latest novelties in Veilings, consisting of the magpie, jackdaw, chenille dots and plain meshes—in fact, Veilings of all kinds imaginable, in all shades' single width. Every piece in the lot well worth 25c a yard. You can buy as much as you desire tomorrow at 5c

LOT 2—Stylish effects in all the newest Veilings, in plain and fancy meshes, with large and small dots, in all colors, double width, not a piece in the lot worth less than 39c a yard, and the majority worth 45c. You can make your selection, at—yard 10c

These Veilings will be displayed in our centre aisle bargain tables.

LANSBURGH & BRO.

420 to 426 Seventh Street.

We Will Hurry

In the making of your Carpet, if you wish, we have the best facilities in Washington for doing quick work. We handle only such grades as we can guarantee for reliability, and we make, lay, and line them absolutely free of extra cost. No cash store in town will do as much. Remember, we are complete furriers—Heating and Cooking Stoves, Bed Wear, Crockery, everything. Payments arranged to suit you—weekly or monthly.

GROGAN'S Mammoth Credit House.
617, 619, 621, 623 7th St. N. W.,
Bet. H and I Sts.

Don't Foolishly
Have your teeth extracted by dentists that pain you. We guarantee to extract any tooth without pain or to charge a cent. Get extremely low summer rates on all work will hold good for a short while longer—so call at once.
VERO DENTISTS.
1201 Pa. ave. opp. Raleigh. New office hours 8 a. m. to 6 p. m. Sunday, 9 a. m. to 4 p. m.

SPECIAL SALE OF SQUARE PIANOS.
DROOP'S MUSIC HOUSE,
925 Pa. Ave.

$5 Painless Extraction Free When Teeth Are Ordered.
With the re-enforced suction our plates fit more accurately.
Gold Crowns, $5; Porcelain, $4; Gold Fillings, $1.50 up; White Fillings, 50c and up.
LADY ASSISTANT.
DR. PATTON, Dentist, 910 F St. N. W.

For PREMIUM STAMPS.
KING'S PALACE.
612-614 7th St. 712 Market Space.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT!

VACLAV ZALESK, Ladies' Tailor, Dressmaker and Furrier.

Mr. Zalesak, having recently returned from an extended trip abroad, visiting all the fashion centres of Europe, desires to inform his many patrons that he is now prepared to show them the latest designs of Vienna and Parisian novelties in Ladies' Tailor-made Suits.

Style, fit, and workmanship surpassing anything ever offered in Washington. Artistic models now on display in our show rooms, and as particular attention is given to the minutest details, ladies can be assured of exclusive styles not obtainable elsewhere.

V. ZALESK,

(Late of Vienna and with Worth, of Paris)

1022 Connecticut Avenue.

NEWS FROM LANGDON.

LANGDON, D. C., Sept. 28.—Services will be held as usual tomorrow in the Langdon Methodist Episcopal Church, Rev. Mr. Hughes, pastor, officiating. A business meeting of the Epworth League has been announced for Tuesday evening, October 1.

The principal event of interest in Langdon social circles during the past week was the marriage of Miss Bessie Catterton to Charles C. Grey, in the Langdon Methodist Episcopal Church, last Wednesday evening. The ceremony was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Hughes, pastor of the church. The best man was William Catterton, brother of the bride, and the bridesmaid was Miss Bessie Armiger, of Anacostia, D. C. The ushers were Reid

Baker, Charles Saxton, John Watson, Jr., and Edward Cartwright. The bride's dress was of French perian lawn, trimmed with vari-colored ribbons. The church was crowded with the friends of the pair beyond its seating capacity.

A reception was afterward held at the Catterton mansion in the grove. Mrs. Birdie Walton, sister of the bride, being in charge of arrangements. She was assisted by Misses Alice Stanford, Nellie Featherstone, Miss Berkeley, of Anacostia, the Misses Lizzie and Susie Warren, Florence Haskell, and Kate Phelps, of Langdon. Mr. and Mrs. George P. Price and Mrs. Armiger, of Anacostia, were also among the guests.

Mrs. E. P. Sherman, of Emporia Street, has returned after a three months' sojourn in Colorado, greatly improved in health.

Mrs. Smith, of Hyattsville, Md., visited the family of her uncle, Wilton Harvey, on Langdon Heights, during the past week.

The Misses Barnes, of Georgetown, D. C., visited the family of their uncle, John Hopgood, of Twenty-second Street, last week.

Frank Higdon, one of Langdon's enterprising merchants, has completed the residence portion of his house adjoining the store and his family are now residing there.

Mrs. J. G. Durfee has invitations out for a "welcome home" tonight to her husband, James G. Durfee, from his recent visit to the Sovereign Grand Lodge of Old Fellows, relatives in Michigan and the Pan-American Exposition.

Charles P. Fletcher, of the Government Printing Office, has leased the Seaton house in North Langdon preparatory to building a house on adjoining lots. L. H. Patterson, the purchaser, will move into the house on Langdon Heights vacated by Mr. Fletcher on October 1.

Charles Saxton, the clerk to Postmaster Putnam, has been admitted to the partnership of Andrews & Foster, grocers, under Society Temple.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

The Coming Season Not to Be Shrouded in Gloom.

October to Be Exquisite With Bride Roses—Some Weddings of the Month—Return of Summer Warders From Mountain and Shore.

Washington is showing distinct signs of a social resurrection. West End terraces are no longer rank with grasses that dance rag-time measures to the autumn breeze. Impressive fountains are beginning to open doors that only a week ago were as safely locked as a bank. Handsome equipages are growing more numerous on the driveways. The shopping centres of Vanity Fair are commencing to take on the air of a beauty show, so numerous are the customers, well groomed and tanned, home from their summer triumphs by mountain and shore. In churches and homes, on the fashionable thoroughfares, and at the railroad stations indications are that the time has arrived when—with an apology to the proverb—All roads lead to Rome.

It is a matter of general gratification that the gloom of the summer months is not to cast its shadow over what was promised to have been the gayest season that the Capital has known for years.

On general principles it is always better to laugh than to sigh, and even the average workers of the everyday world have more prosaic uses for their lives than to eat, drink, and be merry take more or less interest in Dame Fashion's lively goings on.

Mr. Cortelyou announced before going to the period of mourning that would cover the customary thirty days only and that the state functions of the winter would be given in their usual order, beginning with the public reception on January 1. Mrs. Roosevelt will receive only to fashionable society on October 15, so that the Executive Mansion will be almost as quiet and home-like as the family place at Oyster Bay for the next two weeks to come.

The Cabinet families are still scattered. Miss Wilson, daughter of the Secretary of Agriculture, is one of the early arrivals and is looking particularly well after her summer's visit to New England.

The British Ambassador and family, who went to England in the early summer, will not return to Washington before November 1. The secretaries of the embassy will remain at Newport until some time between October 15 and 20, when they will return to the city and reopen the embassy on Connecticut Avenue before the coming of Lord Pauncefote.

The transfer of Mr. Gerard Lowther to a European post will be a matter of general regret to fashionable society. His popularity is to be gauged by the multitudinous invitations he has received through the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Walsh were expected to arrive in Washington last night from New York, where they have been visiting since leaving Oursay, their home in Colorado. Until their house on Massachusetts Avenue is completed, they will continue to occupy the Jenness Miller house, on Phelps Place, where they have made their home during their residence in the city.

Preparations are practically complete for the wedding of Miss Abby Greene Aldrich, daughter of United States Senator Nelson W. Aldrich, to John D. Rockefeller, Jr., son of the magnate of oil magnate, on Wednesday, October 2, at the summer residence of the bride's parents, Warwick Neck, R. I.

Three hundred invitations have been issued to the wedding, and about 5,000 of the two families, and about 5,000 of the two families, are to be sent out within the next week to friends in this country and Europe.

The wedding ceremony will take place in the beautiful new tea house, overlooking the past summer on the site of the $100,000 house, which was destroyed by fire earlier in the year, and the Rev. Dr. G. G. Vose, pastor of the Beneficent Congregational Church of New York, which the Aldrich family attend, will perform the ceremony.

In order to get the guests to the estate down Narragansett Bay, with comfort and despatch, two companies of motor boats have been engaged to leave Providence early in the morning, and after an hour's sail land the Aldrich party, just below Rocky Point.

The country home is about eighteen miles from Providence, over a rough and dusty road. The hour set for the ceremony is 11:30 a. m.

It was the original intention to have only the immediate family circle present, but when the list of guests was being made up it was decided to extend the number to three hundred. A small party will come from Chicago, another from Cleveland, and a number of guests from New York, Boston, and Newport.

Miss Aldrich has selected her trousseau entirely in the city. It is beautiful, but simple. Every effort is being made to avoid any display of money. The bride will probably be represented at the wedding by a friend who is a favorite with the bride. The bride will be given away by her father.

A wedding breakfast will be served under the trees. The pair will reside in New York.

Miss Gertrude Rittman, daughter of Mr. Frederick Rittman, formerly of Cleveland and now Auditor of the War Department, is heralded as one of the belles to be of the coming season. Her friends declare that she speaks several languages fluently and that her familiarity with European customs attained by study and travel abroad will make her a favorite with the diplomatic contingent. She has a fine voice which was cultivated at a foreign music centre.

M. Thiebaut, the former First Secretary of the French Embassy, but now stationed in Europe, is expected to arrive in this country about October 1. The marriage of M. Thiebaut and Mme. Regina Rengifo, widow of Gen. Julio Rengifo, will take place in the city of New York, which the Aldrich family attend, will perform the ceremony.

Society in Philadelphia is interested in the annual East Miss Mott Bartram Richards, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Richards, is to wed the Austrian Margrave Count Hippolyte Palatinowski. She made her debut last year. Miss Richards is making a specialty of the beautiful young Philadelphia. Count Palatinowski is the son of a most distinguished family in Europe. The count's ancestors have estates in the south of France. Miss Richards is tall and is in her prime, noted for her beauty. The wedding will take place in the fall.

The "Italian News," published in Rome, Italy, announces the recent marriage of Prince Don Giuseppe Rospigliosi, the head of the famous Rospigliosi family, to Mrs. Marie Reid Parkhurst, daughter of the late Samuel C. Reid, of Washington, D. C., and granddaughter of the naval hero, Captain Samuel Chester Reid. The Rospigliosi palace in Rome is among the finest in the Eternal City, and during the life of the late Prince Rospigliosi was noted as a literary and social centre.

Present indications point to the fact that the Richmond Horse Show will be the brilliant society event of the carnival week in that city. It is looked forward to with the greatest interest. Many prominent members of the city will be present. Richmond's fashionable set will be in full attendance, each member displaying the colors of his or her favorite horse or horses. The boxes will be filled with the beauty and wealth of the city, and the riding will be participated in by a number of splendid Virginia horses—points in the State. Many house parties will occupy the attention of graceful society hostesses during the Horse Show, and add to the pleasure of the occasion. Those who will enter the riding lists, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Langhorne and their married daughter, Mrs. Charles Dana Gibson, will occupy a box.

The White House is beginning to look homelike and cheerful again. The new carpet for the great East Room is not unlike, in general character, the old one which was selected by Mrs. Cleveland and put down five years ago. The 50 yards required for the vast apartment is of oak and saffron tint and combines well with the old gold furniture and wall and ceiling of white and gilt.

Mrs. William Barrett Ridgely, daughter of Senator and Mrs. Cullom, and wife of the new Controller of the Currency, is well known in the social world here. She is now in Chicago, where, with her family, she has been living since the closing of their summer home, but is expected to join Mr. Ridgely in Washington within the next few days. There are two young daughters of the house, the elder of whom is seventeen, and a student in a local school.

Lady Curzon of Kedleston, formerly Miss Mary Leiter, of this city, and now wife of the Viceroy of India, accompanied by her children and maid, sailed for India to reign her husband. It is believed that Lady Curzon's health has been much benefited by her visit to England.

The following Washingtonians were passengers on the new American steamship Philadelphia, due at New York yesterday: Mr. Charles J. Bell, Mrs. Bell, the Misses Bell, the Masters Bell, Mr. J. M. Boyle, Mr. Woodard, Mr. Blair, Mr. Blair, Miss Groverman, Mrs. Gardiner G. Hubbard, Mr. W. C. Long, Mr. Charles E. Woodard, and Mr. H. Woodard.

The week opens with the wedding of Miss Mabel Horner and Capt. James Francis Brady, which will take place tomorrow afternoon. The ceremony will be followed by a reception at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Charles West Horner.

Miss Clara Elizabeth Merriam's marriage to Mr. Thomas Linville will occur at Wesley Methodist Episcopal Church next Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.

October 17 is the date set for the wedding of Miss Gladys Froulike and Mr. Chapman Smith. It will take place at St. John's Church. Miss Froulike has been Mr. and Mrs. Winthrop Smith, of Glen-side, a suburb of Philadelphia.

A marriage of international interest will be that of Mrs. Renfro to Mr. Eugene Thibaut, on October 22, in the private chapel of Cardinal Martinelli, who will perform both the ceremony and the nuptial mass that will follow.

Major and Mrs. John Wesley Pullman have sent out cards announcing the marriage of their daughter Gertrude to Frank Taylor Evans, ensign, U. S. N., Friday, September 28, at Fort Monroe, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Stelle Campbell, of New Brunswick, N. J., have sent out cards announcing the marriage of their son, Jennie Sarah Campbell, to Mr. John Wesley Douglas, Wednesday, September 26, at home, 1000 Broadway, New York. The wedding will be at home Wednesday, September 26, at 5 to 8 o'clock, at 100 Broadway.

Miss Anna May Leggett, only daughter of Mrs. George Stewart Leggett, and Mr. George Leverett Stewart, of Brooklyn, were married Wednesday evening at the Church of the Incarnation. The bride was given in marriage by her grandfather, Mr. Robert Langdon Brockert, of Atlanta, Ga., and the ceremony was performed by Rev. W. H. K. Pondexter, of Virginia, assisted by Rev. William Taylor Snyder, Miss Mary Tasker Bowie, of Grassland, Anne Arundel County, Md., the maid of honor, was gown in white Paris muslin, with lace yoke, and carried white roses. The four bridesmaids, Misses Annie Stuart Hart, of Baltimore; Bessie Talbot, of Washington; Lucy Seymour Black, of Virginia; and Mary, of Tennessee, were also white and carried white roses. Their ribbons were of yellow, matching the tint of the bridesmaid's dress, with palms, formed the decorations of the church. The bride's gown was of costly tulle and lace, with a long train, and trimmed with point lace and orange blossoms. Her tulle veil was fastened with orange blossoms and her bouquet was of lilies of the valley and bride roses. Mr. Roger Walcott, of Boston; Mr. Edmund Hamilton Sears, Mr. William Bradford Robbins, and Mr. Chandler Robbins of Boston were the ushers. Mr. Robert Peabody Bellows acted as best man. After a reception at 1131 Vermont Avenue, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart left for their honeymoon trip, which will end at their home in Brooklyn.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Harvey have sent out invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Mary Magdalene, to Mr. William Sarsfield McCarthy, Thursday morning, October 18, at 11 o'clock, at St. Patrick's Church.

Invitations have been received in Washington to the wedding of Miss Nancy Irwin Findlay, daughter of Mr. James Findlay, of Hagerstown, and niece of the Hon. J. V. L. Findlay, of Baltimore, to the Rev. Robert Alexander Boyle, pastor of the Presbyterian Church in Hagerstown, where the marriage will take place on Tuesday, October 8, at noon.

Prof. and Mrs. W. H. Ragnan have returned to the city, after their wedding journey. Mrs. Ragnan will be at home, informally, at 147 A Street northeast, on Mondays until November 1, when they expect to make their home in the Loudoun, 312 East Capitol Street.

The following visitors to the Pan-American Exposition from Washington are registered at the Buffalo hotel: Irwin, formally, at 147 A Street northeast, on Mondays until November 1, when they expect to make their home in the Loudoun, 312 East Capitol Street.

Organized a New Church.
The meeting of those interested in organizing a new Catholic church to be located in the southern end of St. Anthony's parish (Bloomington) will be held at 64 Y Street northwest Sunday at 4 p. m. Arrangements have been made by Father Hannan for the use of Moore's place, in which Sunday school will commence the first Sunday in October about 2 p. m. Preparations for the celebration of mass will be made at the earliest possible date.

Silver Wave Social Club.
The Silver Wave Social Club will give its first reopening dance at St. Joseph's Hall, Fifth and H Streets northwest, next Tuesday evening, commencing at 8 o'clock.

Piano Clearing Sale.

1 Linden.....$80
1 Stultz & Bauer.....$90
1 Haines.....$80
A choice of five square Pianos.....$25
Others from.....$25 to $75

15 Organs from $5.00 up.

5 New Uprights at 20 per cent. Discount.

These Pianos are all genuine bargains, and prices hold good but for a month.

Sanders & Stayman Co.

1327 F Street N. W.

PERCY S. FOSTER, Manager.

Millions of Fingers

Are made busy every month by "The Delineator." Illustrations of new styles, the latest products of the designers' fancy, are shown on its pages. Millions of Butterick Patterns are used to make the busy fingers and their dainty creations. They will work on Dress Goods, Linings, Trimmings, etc., etc., if you push "The Delineator."

Subscription $1 a Year.

Lewis Baar, 927 F Street.

CONDOLENCES FROM LONDON.

A Message Transmitted through the Naval Fiscal Agency.
The following message of sympathy was received by the Navy Department this morning, transmitted by the United States Government Fiscal Agency of the Navy Department, dated London, September 18, and addressed to the Secretary of the Navy:
"It is with feelings of the deepest sorrow that we learned of the lamented and tragic death of President McKinley, and we beg to offer you and the department over which you preside our sincere sympathies in so severe a loss.
"We have the honor to remain, dear sir, yours, respectfully,
"SELIGMAN BROTHERS."

Resuming Y. M. C. A. Work.
The first meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association Lyceum will be held Saturday evening, October 5, for reorganization and election of officers. On Friday evening, October 4, will be held the first monthly conference on religious work.

Grand Opening OF Stylish Fall Footwear.

Our new fall and winter stock of Ladies', Men's, and Children's Footwear is now complete, and we proclaim it to be the largest in its varieties—and the most carefully selected in point of quality that has ever been shown in this city. That is a broad claim—but we are ready to SUBSTANTIATE it. We are determined that you shall become quickly acquainted with this magnificent new stock—and to this end we quote some introductory prices for tomorrow that will prove a temptation to every shoe buyer.

Ladies' Fall Shoes.
There has never been a better shoe made for ladies at the price than our "Leader," Dongola Kid, in leather and lace—heavy soles. Extension edges. All the new styles and winter shapes.
$1.98

Men's Fall Styles.
Such durable qualities and stylish shapes for men were never offered before for $1.98. Choice of calf, kid, and leather. Extension edges and box calf with heavy soles. Extension edges. All the new styles and winter shapes.
$1.98

$3.00
Finest grades of Kid Kid, Box Calf and Patent Leather Shoes for ladies. Hand sewed, with heavy soles and extension edges. Also the new rope stitch. None better elsewhere at $5.00 price only.

$3.00
Hand-sewed Shoes for men, made of the best Italian Leather, box calf, and patent leather—substantial, heavy soles, extension edges and rope stitch. The best shoe ever offered for.....

FAMILY SHOE STORE, 310 and 312 Seventh Street.